

According to Hong Kong media, the standing committee of the Chinese Communist Party (CCP) held an enlarged meeting on the evening of March 12th, and on March 13th followed up with a meeting of the CCP Central Committee.

At the meeting, chinese regime leader Xi Jinping said that the CCP is facing severe and urgent challenges which would be the key to life or death for the regime in the next two years.

This is quite similar to the ideas in the book The Great Crash of 2014 which has attracted great interest.

The Great Crash of 2014 was published in Hong Kong on Jan, 1, 2013, and the author, Hu Qiaoying, claimed that “The latest leak from the top level of the CCP reveals that the central emergency response group submitted a top-secret report that Chinese society is about to totally collapse in 2014.”

The secret report described the the collapse of the economy, the failure of businesses, the upheaval of society, and the occurrence of street revolution everywhere. The committee was forced to call a special meeting to discuss the report but the result of the discussion was the inevitability of social breakdown under CCP rule.

The standing committee of the CCP's enlarged meeting on March 12 was attended by Hu Jingtao, Wu Bangguo, and Wen Jiabao.

Members of the Central military commission, provincial leaders and the party ministry also attended.

Xi Jinping acknowledged that grievances in most parts of China are at flash point, and if not addressed, would intensify the political crisis faced by the CCP.

Hong Kong magazine, ChengMing , reported that in May 2012, the former General Secretary of the CCP, Hu Jintao admitted that the CCP faced a critical situation.

In the “Financial Annual Meeting: Forecast and Strategy of 2013” held in Beijing on Nov. 29, 2012, Mr. Sun Liping, a sociology professor at Tsinghua University, made the surprising statement: "The Chinese government uses any method to achieve its goals, so a quiet but persistent revolution has already taken place - whatever the government says, people will not believe it any more ."

The current General Secretary of the CCP, Xi Jinping obtained his Ph.D at Tsinghua University, and Mr. Sun Liping was his thesis adviser at that time.

Mr. Chen Ping, the founder of Sun Affairs Weekly , who was also a member of the CCP's high-level political think tank, said in an interview with Taiwan New News that: "there will be a great revolution in China within three years, and even the fifth generation leaders of China will not be able to change the trend."

Political commentator, Mr. Chen Puokong also pointed out that CCP's litany of wrong doings in the last 60 years, being responsible for the great famine, the Great Cultural Revolution, the destruction of Chinese culture, and "it committed the June 1989 massacre, and persecutes Falun Gong in China, persecutes human rights activists, and has turned out to be a completely evil power and nothing will support its future."

He also pointed out that no matter what the CCP does, it is too late to change the trend of its destruction, and that Chinese society is undergoing a great change. He believes that the only choice for Chinese people is to withdraw from the Chinese communist party. in Nov. 2004. Since then, more than 136 million people have quit the communist party and it's sub groups, the communist youth league and red youth pioneers.

The Quit CCP movement was ignited by the publication of the essay Nine Commentaries on the Chinese communist Party

When Boris Yeltsin and more than 400 million Russians withdrew from the CPSU, the former Soviet Union was disintegrated incredibly in one night .

Is the West working on their emergency plans for the crash of the Chinese Communist Party ?
And what will this mean for the rest of the world?
