

(Flag of Xi' by Badiucao)

Badiucao, a dissident Chinese-Australian cartoonist was born in Shanghai and studied law in China before moving to Australia, where he has lived in exile for the last 10 years.

Wearing masks and cross-dressing during public appearances, he has gone to extreme lengths to conceal his identity, fearing reprisals from China's government over his work, which regularly mocks and criticizes Xi Jinping and his regime's authoritarian policies.

On the eve of the 30th anniversary of the Tiananmen Square Massacre, Badiucao revealed his face in a documentary broadcast on the ABC (Australian Broadcasting Commission) titled China's Artful Dissident.

5th National People's Congress, 15th National People's Congress, 16th National People's Congress, 17th National People's Congress, 18th National People's Congress

The cartoon is a reference to the Chinese phrase "Google is the new Google" (谷歌是新的谷歌), which is a play on the Chinese phrase "Google is the new Google" (谷歌是新的谷歌). The cartoon is a reference to the Chinese phrase "Google is the new Google" (谷歌是新的谷歌), which is a play on the Chinese phrase "Google is the new Google" (谷歌是新的谷歌).

Dissident Cartoonist Badiucao Revealed After Regime Threats to Family

China Uncensored - Last Updated Sunday, 09 June 2019 13:53

(Soft power in Australia)

