

A Thousand Snakes Sunbathe on Road

Last Updated Monday, 11 October 2010 16:17

On 8th Oct, over a thousand snakes were seen crawling on the road in Liuhe county, Jinlin province - over 700 died when run over by passing cars.

A man tries to move an injured snake to the side of the road. (Screenshot)

According to a local road inspector, every year around this time, dozens of snakes come from the bush beside the road to sun-bathe, but this year the number of snakes is greater than ever before.