

Beijing Sacks Editor For Expose

John Garnaut/The Age

A Chinese editor has been removed from his post after his newspaper exposed how shoddy handling of health vaccines by officials may have led to the deaths of four children and serious illnesses in at least 74 others, reports theage.com.au

The report created a stir across China, but within hours had been played down on websites and other media outlets following orders from the Propaganda Department.

Read Age article