

Though Bin Laden and his followers may not consider a union with pork eaters, the communist party in China, Bin Laden and Al Qaeda need each other.

China was keeping a low key on the international stage after news of Bin Laden being killed was released, but in fact, the communist propaganda machine was trying to create an anti-American tide in China again.

The web ' Wu Mao party ' were geared up posting praise for Bin Laden in hundreds of Chinese websites, and posting suggestions such as: 'If you want to learn to be a hero from Bin Laden, why don't you dare to throw a brick at the US Embassy!'... But some daring Chinese bloggers replied: "well, Bin Laden is dead, one less shield in front of the most evil culprit: CCP (Chinese Communist Party) before America's eye." What can it do? create anti US feeling this is the game played by the communist party since they took power in China.

Xinhua net, the communist mouth piece, quickly published a set of photos on 6th May, claiming: "A hundred year old photo news: the crimes of the of eight countries that invaded China*. The high pixel photo shows bloody Chinese victims in Tianjin city. This does stir up many nationalistic feelings among some Chinese, but a Chinese blogger posted: It is upsetting to know that eight foreign armies killed our fellow Chinese; but the 'sons' of Max and Lenin of the communists have been treated in a much more vicious way in the last 62 years; the number of Chinese people killed by the 'Chinese communist regime' is more than the total of people killed in the two world wars! it is still suppressing Chinese now!

Articles published in Chinese media by pro communist writers; or maybe paid writers, questioned whether the team had killed civilians in the compound where Bin Laden lived, (but most Young Chinese who have been brain washed by the communists, are supporters of killing innocent civilians, including woman, the elderly and children) they also tried to incite Bin Laden's followers to 'revenge, some writers announcing that there will be many attacks to follow; some even suggesting where to put chemical bombs in public places.

Xinghua net also praised lengthily, the new leader of AL-Qaeda, telling Chinese, "Ayman al-Zawahiri is a much wiser and capable personhe will take much larger and bloodier revenge; even though he maybe killed by the Americans, the US will not be able to disintegrate Al-Qaeda, because this group will grow bigger." The Chinese regime may be right here, as the Americans, and the rest of the world are focusing on the wrong target.

Through the passionate posts on the Chinese web, it is quite conceivable, if given the chance, that those Chinese, who are brainwashed, and mechanically believe the communist propaganda, could possibly become suicide bombers -- to protect the power, of 'our communist party' in the world stage. The communist regime made some of them torture their own parents during the 'cultural revolution' , and now, it proves: it could happen again!

There is one thing that many Chinese people, especially those 'wu mao party' bloggers, cannot explain: communist China has spent nearly 50 years using propaganda to condemn America, but there are relatives and children of nearly every Chinese communist high official who have migrated overseas, and many of them are American citizens now.

*¹ The Boxer Uprising or Boxer Rebellion was a Chinese rebellion from November 1899 to September 7, 1901 against foreign influence in areas such as trade, politics, religion and technology that occurred in China during the final years of the Qing Dynasty. The assassination of the German ambassador and the siege of foreign diplomatic legations in Peking prompted Britain, France, Germany, the US, Russia, Japan, Italy and Austria-Hungary to form the Eight Nation Alliance and intervene militarily. The Chinese port city of Tientsin (Tianjin) was occupied by the rebels on 30 May 1900 and foreign concessions were besieged. European troops captured the city from the rebels on 13 July.
